

From the Desk of Mrs. Schlotthauer:

Hello! It was great to see so many families during the Carnival FunRaiser.

We are working to show appreciation of one another's art work and one another's acting moves. We have been making excellent progress at supporting our friends with positive comments. We practice saying things to each other like "tell me about that" (instead of 'what is it'), "nice art work," "I like how you did that," "great dance moves," "awesome acting," "neat idea," "I like this ___ about your work," etc... Please help continue practice positive art appreciation comments at home.

Keep sending the winter wear through March.

Thank you!
